Organizational Note:

"At the Zoo" was a weekly program on the Indianapolis, Indiana local television station WRTV-6. The program explored various aspects of the Indianapolis Zoo, including exhibits and events, as well as wildlife topics pertinent to Indiana. The show aired on weekend mornings during the 1990s.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection contains duplicate videocassettes featuring segments of the WRTV-6 television program, "At the Zoo." The segments on the videocassettes feature wildlife reserves in Indiana and Department of Natural Resource programs to reintroduce certain native, endangered species, including bald eagles, to Indiana. It also includes two Washington D.C. speeches regarding agriculture education and employment.
